

Please read these terms and conditions carefully as registering on our website means you agree to them.

Terms and conditions

- All participants enter this event entirely at their own risk and organisers from Cycle the World (hereinafter referred to as "CTW ENABLE Scotland (hereinafter referred to as "ENABLE"), sponsors and associated companies shall not be liable for any injury or loss that might occur as a result of participation.
- All participants must be 18 years and over from the date of the event.
- By completing the registration form for CTW, you agree that your personal details will be shared with ENABLE, who may send you information by email regarding events, both local and national which may be of interest and also may contact you regarding fundraising for ENABLE (you can opt-out of receiving information from ENABLE at any time by contacting ENABLE). Your personal details will not be shared with any other organisations without your consent, or as required by law.
- All participants understand that ENABLE and its associated sponsors will hold and use data provided by them in connection with CTW administration to keep them informed of its activities and for occasional fundraising appeals.
- By taking part, all participants confirm that they are happy for any photographs taken during their participation are used to publicise the cycle ride for future CTW Challenges and associated fundraisers.
- All participants understand that CTW is an ENABLE Scotland exclusive event and all monies raised from registration fees and any fundraising will be for ENABLE Scotland only. This is not an open challenge event and fundraising for another charity is not permitted (unless otherwise agreed by the organisers)
- Any participant unsure of their physical ability to take part in CTW should err on the side of caution and not participate, as this is a challenging event.
- All participants must write their name and full details of any health problems or medication on the registration form. You will be asked to sign a disclaimer on day of registration.
- All participants confirm that their bicycles are roadworthy, in good repair and suitable for use in CTW.
- All participants agree that they may be refused the right of participation in CTW if the organiser believes the participant's safety or the safety of others may be compromised.
- CTW organisers will have the right to remove any content uploaded by participants deemed inappropriate for the site.
- To the full extent permitted by law, all entrants hereby release from, and indemnify CTW against all liability, cost, loss or expense arising out of acceptance of or participation in CTW, including but not limited to loss of income, loss of opportunity, personal injury and damage to property, whether direct or consequential, foreseeable, due to some negligent act or omission or otherwise.
- We reserve the right to make reasonable changes to the terms and conditions at any time during the term of the challenge. We will only do so when we have good reason. Unless we are acting because of a legal requirement or a court order, the change will only be made after we have consulted publicly. We will publish a notice in advance (ideally, 30 days in advance) on our website and provide a link from the main page. The changes will apply from the date shown in the notice. You should visit our website regularly to find out about any changes. If you do not agree with any change to the conditions, you may notify us that you want to end the contract in at least 30 days time. In this case, we will give you a proportionate refund of the registration for the remaining period
- Cycle challenge cancellation: If the cycle challenge is cancelled or delayed due to unforeseen circumstances, we will endeavour to stage the cycle challenge at a later date. In such circumstances we will try to let you know in writing of the cancellation or delay.

Refund Policy

- Registration donations are non-refundable - Should you be unable to participate in the event or wish to cancel your entry your entry donation will be treated as a charitable donation and will not be refunded.
- These terms and conditions are governed by the laws of England and Scotland, but do not affect your statutory rights. If you have any queries contact 0141 226 1631 -or email fundraising@enable.org.uk.

Please read the following terms and conditions

- I undertake to be bound by CTW event rules, which are available on request.
- I understand that the CTW organisers and connected businesses cannot be held responsible in any way for loss or injury to me or any other party, howsoever arising.

Event Rules and Regulations

Event safety

- Competitors must agree to ENABLE Scotland applying to the British Cycling Group for a single day race licence on their behalf.
- Competitors must exercise mature judgment and carry out all reasonable instructions from officials.
- Competitors are ultimately responsible for their own safety and for the safety of others
- Competitors must take responsibility for knowing the rules and abiding by them
- It is the competitors' responsibility to be properly prepared for the event and to ensure that their equipment is suitable and fit for its intended purpose
- No competitor who, in the opinion of any race official is physically incapable of continuing without sustaining physical damage or loss of life, shall be permitted to continue racing.
- Only road bikes or mountain bikes with road bike tyres can be used for CTW.
- Bar-end extensions and triathlon handlebars are not allowed.
- The wearing of helmets (conforming to CE Standards EN1078) is mandatory for all riders
- Only one rider per team is permitted on the circuit at any time
- Front and rear lights must be in use between 20.00 – 06.00
- High viz jackets or panels need to be worn between 20.00 – 06.00
- Within the Transition Area a speed limit of 10MPH is to be observed, the minimum time that teams are permitted to change rider is 20 SECONDS, maximum time of 40 SECONDS
- In order to avoid accidents, safeguard, and equipment and protect personal possessions, participants must not bring helpers, friends or family members into any transition area.
- Cycles must be placed in their allotted position (or at a competitor's tent) and not where they may hinder the progress of other competitors, equipment that is discarded will be regarded as a hindrance
- Riders are only permitted to tag riders within the designated zone in the transition area
- Riders waiting to ride are permitted to mount their bike but must be stationary at the time of being tagged
- The incoming rider must pass over their electronic chip to the outgoing rider in the zone and the outgoing rider needs to attach the tag before being allowed to set off.
- Competitors must not interfere with another competitors' equipment in the transition area
- Riders will need to adhere to the minimum time set to remain in the allocated area to enable safe transition for all riders.
- Race numbers provided by the organiser must not be altered, cut down, folded or in any way mutilated
- Race numbers must be affixed to the competitors clothing or to a suitable race belt or bib so that the number is clearly visible at all times.
- A number must be displayed on your back and must be visible at all times
- Electronic tagging will measure your teams' ride. A transponder will be issued, one per team. It is each rider's responsibility to ensure the tag is passed on at every transition and handed in at the end of the race.
- Do not attempt to remove/affix the ankle chip whilst moving
- The Pit Garages (within the Transition Area) are for BIKES ONLY
- Only cross the Pit Lane in the designated place
- All riders must display their rider number so that it is clearly visible at all times when on the circuit (do not cover with jackets)
- The rider chip must be attached to the FRONT of your bike

- If a rider has a mechanical problem on the circuit he/she must complete the lap to access the Transition Area.
- MP3/I-pod players are permitted using ONE EAR PIECE not both
- You must show your wristband to enter the Transition Area and get free food/massage etc.
- Obey commands given by all event marshals and staff; they are for your safety
- Do not leave rubbish on the track or in the main event area; use bins provided
- Competitors shall at all times cycle so that they do not deliberately obstruct or interfere with other competitors.